“ Rose and the 3 “K’s”, my heart and prayers go out to you and your family. I had the pleasure to be Tony’s manager aka “Boss” as he would call me. Although I was Tony’s work manager, little did Tony know he was teaching me about life for 4 years. I had so much respect for Tony on how he handled work life balance. Tony’s love for his family was evident! When discussing about his daughters, he was had the biggest and softest heart for all 3. Having two girls of my own now, I finally understand what Tony was talking about all those years. I guess we were meant to be #girdad!

Tony, I will miss your smile and laugh! I will miss you calling me “boss” although I ask you not to. Most importantly I will miss your good soul. You will always be one of the best person I’ve encountered and I’m blessed to say I’ve met you. Rest In Peace my friend. Look down on your family and be their Angel. You’re with God now! Rest easy.

“ The first time i met you Tony was on the 2nd leg of my journey to visit Santa for the first time.
My impression of you then was that you were a bit tough and gruff. It was funny really when i saw first hand what a marshmallow you were. The way you treated your babies, nephews and neices.

Such tenderness was beautiful to see, you were very much like my Johnny Ton.

Now you will get to see your brothers again. I envy you that.

You rest easy now with them, and know that your families loved you, respected you and appreciated you.

“ Uncle Tony was a special part of my childhood. When he was working in Times Transit, our parents would send us via Times bus going to Cubao and we will just meet him at the terminal and he will be the one to accompany us going to my tita's house in Marikina or Blumentritt on his available time. He will let us stay at his barracks when he is still on duty.
Rest now tito and we will continue to pray for you.

“ Tito Tony has always been very generous to us, his nieces and nephews. Back when he was still single and working in Manila, he would often send us donuts, cakes, fruits and goodies. Even when he moved to California and had kids of his own, he would still send us balikbayan boxes full of our favorite stuff.

Tito, we are saddened by your passing but we take solace in the fact that you lived a life full of love and that even in your last moments, you were surrounded by your loving family.

“ Our deepest sympathy and condolences to Rose, Kristine, Kathryn, and Krystal and the entire Cardenas family.

This is so sad to write an obituary to a very good friend of ours. Tony was very kind, good hearted, friendly and generous man. He was also a man of faith that always comes to mass and even when he was in the wheelchair. We will missed seeing you in the church and saying “ Peace be with you”.

Tony was friendly and generous to all his friends and family. He loved to have parties in their house and invite all friends and family because he loved to cook. Tony and Rose always sharing their fruits from their trees to all their friends. When they have the opportunity to go to do fruit picking they will always shared what they picked and delivered it to his friend’s houses. What a selfless human being. We thank you for all these generous and friendly gestures.

Tony has this angelic smile that captured everyone. Even when he was suffering in his hospital bed. When we went to visit him, he will not show that he was in pain but you will see his beautiful smile that makes us, his friends feel good.

Tom and I were glad we went to see you for the last time in your home before the mortuary took you. We got to say goodbye and prayed with your family for the last time.

Tony, you are in the best place, no more pain and sufferings. Rest In Peace our friend and rest assured that we are here for Rose, Kristine, Kathryn and Krystal always. We will missed you and we love you!

“ Our deepest sympathy and condolence,
Auntie Rose, Kristine, Katryn & Krystal
Tita Cerry, Tito Mon & Tita Ella

Tito Tony knew how to live life. He was always happy, full of life, caring and generously sweet. He and I used to tag along with Lola Elay and Mama during Santa teachers' out of town school events when we were in elementary. He was just a year older than me but he insisted on being called Uncle and so our uncle-niece relationship was deeply sealed all the way to college. Together with Auntie Rose and 3K, he spoiled us when my family visited them in Carlson. Living the joie de vivre legend, he made sure the boys enjoyed the roadtrip to Las Vegas and the stay at Tramp.

Everytime he comes home to PH, he had unending stories about the four lovely women in his life. He was blessed with a loving wife and three intelligent and caring children. He led a wonderful life and his time was up. The Lord called him early and we shouldn't be sad. He now rest in peace

Farewell my caring Uncle Tony! You are forever etched in my heart

“ Aunt Rose, Kristine, Katryn, Krystal and the whole family, Our prayers and condolences. May God give you all the strength and comfort you need. God bless you all.

We will miss you, Uncle Tony; your smile and laughter, your kindness, your caring and hospitality. When we were based in Folsom, Ca; going to LA is having vacation with family. We also went to San Diego with you. Moving on, whenever I go to LA, you always come and pick me up at the office or at the hotel and stay in your home, walk or tour around and also bring me to the airport. We will also miss the delicious food you cooked but also the joy and laughter when you were cooking.

Uncle Tony, You lived well. You did well and raise smart daughters. You will always be remembered. We are comforted that you are now in a better place. Rest in peace with the Lord God.

“ Ms. Rose and family...I'm certainly lifting you all in prayer and sending massive love to each of you. I'll never forget the first time Tony called me "Boss Kinta" I said, "Tony, you don't have to call me Boss!" And of course he responded, "okay Boss". Even after I left the company, he always referred to me as Boss and it always gave me a good laugh. I'm going to truly miss my friend but I have comfort in knowing he is now resting with God.

“ To Ading Rose and the 3 “ K's” my heart felt condolences to all of you. Words are not enough to express how I felt when Rose sent me a text that Tony was gone. I felt sad and relieved at the same time because he is in a better place now... no more pains and sufferings.From day #1 I started saying a prayer for him including his family to remain strong for him.I also offered my masses and visits to the Blessed sacrament(before the Covid 19) to heal him if it's God's will and to spare him unnecessary pain. The last time I saw him was at their golden wedding anniversary celebration at their residence. He was a picture of joy and you would think he was not sick. I am glad that I was able to share those beautiful memories with him and his family.He is a humble,generous and caring person as well as a good husband and father.We will miss you Ading Tony. May you Rest peacefully in ourLord's bosom and I will continue to pray for you and your family

“ Renato and I are sending our deepest condolence to the whole family. I only knew Tony when you and your family (your youngest one was only 2or 3 years old) came to London. Ella brought you to our place and we all went to Windsor Castle for the day. That day was so nice to have you and it was our great pleasure to take you all in one car. So sad to hear this sad news but to think that Tony is now at rest eternally keeps us all together but in grief. May his soul rest in peace Amen

“ Our deepest sympathy to you Rose and your family!

Goodbye our everdearest dabarkad Tony. You will forever be in our fondest memories. Who would ever forget your always jolly and ever inviting nature, your kindness, your enthusiasm, your ever-willing to entertain us and be our host for watching Pacquiao's fight and our poker game, and most of all in showing what a great friend to all of us.

We will surely miss you. Our poker games may never happen again or be the same without you. Because it's not just a game, it's the fun having you.

You are now in a better place. Please look upon us here on earth with our everloving God in heaven.
