“ On July 15, 2020, the Lord called one of His dearest home. Uncle Claudie has shared many memories with us; now he stands in the very presence of God. Thanks for the memories, Claudie! We who remain, do so with hope to see you again on resurrection morning. "For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first" (1 Thess. 4:16).

“ Dear Uncle Claudie, you were our guardian angel in our childhood. You showed us fun, laughter and good times. It was enjoyable having you around. You made us so happy. You were still there for us when we became adults. My kid and grandkids were beneficiaries of your kindness and giving heart . You dressed my husband and children with your fine tailoring. As a kid I can remember family and friends addressing you as the famous designer, Christian Dior. You were one of a kind; someone who took pride in his work and gave the very best. We will never forget you because you will always be an integral part of our memories which you helped to create. Rest In Peace until we meet again. We will always love you! Your niece Ruthie and family.

“ "Death you cannot end my gladness: I am baptized into Christ!
When I die, I leave all sadness To inherit paradise!
Though I lie in dust and ashes Faith's assurance brightly flashes:
Baptism has the strength divine To make life immortal mine.

There is nothing worth comparing To this lifelong comfort sure!
Open-eyed my grave is staring: Even there I'll sleep secure.
Though my flesh a waits its raising, Still my soul continues praising:
I am baptized into Christ; I'm a child of paradise."
God's Own Child, I Will Gladly Say It
LSB 594, stanzas 4&5

Claudio, my brother in Christ, will be missed. His engaging smile and warm hug; the many small things he did for my wife and me; viewing him from the pulpit seated in his regular seat next to Carmen - all will be remembered.

Rest in peace. We will meet again in paradise.

“ Condolences to the family of Mr. Claudio Miller (Dad as I always called him, ever since I met Yamira in 7th grade at Good Shepherd Lutheran School & Church in Inglewood, CA). I'm so sorry for the loss of your dad Yamira. Hugs my friend! Mrs. Carmen Miller (Mom) hugs to you for marrying such a kind man. He was a man of little words but always said hello & a nice smile. Oh but when he laughed he would laugh mainly of us girls talking & laughing about memories of being a kid, then he would quietly walk away. Then mom stayed with us a little longer & laugh with us about girl stuff. Those are the memories that I remember best. Hugs to the family. Love, Debbie Keaneman Wong

“ Claudio Miller was a kind and gentle spirit who worked as a tailor in Inglewood for MANY MANY years. He was a man of few words and was very busy helping you and making sure your needs were met if you entered his shop. Claudio was Big Kourt's (my husband's) tailor for many years. We didn't even know it until after we were married 3 years... He kept husband looking clean and dapper. You all know how my husband is about his clothes... Husband started taking son to the shop to have his suits tailored by Claudio about 4 years ago. Claudio got the biggest kick out of watching Son grow and taking the hem out of his pant legs...he also supported and attended a few of son's football games. Whenever I saw him, he would ALWAYS ask about Son with a smile.

Just thought I would pay tribute to my dear friend's dad who impacted our lives and will be missed. Yamira and her dad were listening to praise songs while she sat with him at his bedside two days ago, and I know he is now face to face with Jesus.

We will miss you Mr. Miller, and you will. EVER be forgotten. The Williams Family

“ Words can't convey how much of a loss was experienced by the world after my grandfather passed. He was a true joy to the people who knew him and inspired me to be the man I am today. He was a tailor, a father, a husband, a grandfather, a baseball fan, and a pillar of his church and community. I will miss him.

“ He gave me my first cup of Cuban coffee (and watched with that devilish smile as I took my first sip:). Aye, he drank it all... Do you want another cup? With the same smile, he asked me.

Know matter what the issue, he handled it with a calm demeanor that just made you want to relax. I thought I was a grown man, until I met him, talked with him, watched and learned from him. I am a better man because of his caring ways, his examples, his love and forgiveness.

There are some people who enter your life and touch you in a way you shall never forget. Mima, Yamira, JG, Maya, Mark and all the the rest of his family and friends, we have walked with an Angel.

“ I will miss Claudio's friendly hug and a smile at my clumsy attempted at Spanish each Sunday morning. Claudio was a faithful husband, a loving father and a man of kindness and character. I was so happy to get to know Claudio and Carmen better because their shared with me the story of their journey to America for research I was doing for a class. To know that because God is faithful to his promise to a man who trusted his Savior, I will see Claudio again is a comfort.
