“ I will always remember Elaine. We car pooled every year to our All Staff Day meeting, and to some Library Managers' and YA meetings at different LA County Library branches. We shared a many stories, laughed a lot on the road and had lunches after our meeting. I will miss her.

“ I'm sorry we didn't get to talk much the last time we saw each other. So much was going on, as it always does. But I want to say that it was a pleasure to have known Elaine. I enjoyed sharing a meal break (along with Lori Schwartz, the Children's Librarian) at a local Italian restaurant when we worked together at Manhattan Beach eons ago.

“ I will always remember Elaine for her quiet, steady and responsible demeanor which kept me out of trouble when we hung out together. We both started out at Amestoy Elementary and ended up at UCLA. We took different paths and we had different interests, but our lives intersected in our life journey. I am sad that her journey ended before I could reconnect with her. But I am forever grateful for having her as a friend who was able to participate in my wedding and my baby shower.

“ I have known Elaine for many years through LA County Library and was fortunate to work with her directly at Satow Library in the spring of 2019. I will miss our lunches and carpooling to meetings and her quiet, steady presence. Rest in peace, Miss Elaine...

Jose Castro, LA County Library

When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to comfort you,
please know that I still love you,
'cause I know you love me too.

When tomorrow starts without me
and you feel lost and blue,
I hope these words I've written will help to see you through.

Someday your pain will ease,
sadness replaced by fond memories.
Come tomorrow you will hear
I love you whispered on the breeze.

When tomorrow starts without me
'cause God has called me home,
I turn, blowing a kiss for thee,
sad that you may feel alone.

I will miss you tomorrow.
As I take one last glimpse,
a tear falls from my cheek.
I'll be going home.

And tomorrow will start without me.
