

Sabrina Torres

September 4, 1977 - January 26, 2021

Sabrina Torres, a life-long resident of the South Bay Area, left us on earth to be in eternal peace, Tuesday, January 26th of 2021, at a young age of 43, after a hellacious battle against COVID.

Sabrina was born on Sunday, September 4th 1977 to Rosalie Trejo and the late Eddie Torres. She was the 3rd of four siblings on her mother's side. She worked as a massage therapist at Stevedores in Wilmington, and an entrepreneur on the side. She was always trying to find creative ways to make money to support her family and the things she loved.

Sabrina was loved by not only her family, but by a city of people in San Pedro where she grew up, and so many others that have crossed her path along the way. For those who knew Sabrina, know she was nothing short of amazing. She was a wonderful daughter who helped out her mother immensely, a loving sister, a mother who loved her children unconditionally and the best she knew how to, the light to her fiance, a loyal friend to many, the heart of most.

Sabrina will always be remembered by her carefree charisma, full of life personality. She was always the life of the party. She would light up the room with her free spirit, beautiful big white smile, high cheekbones, hypnotizing bright green eyes, and contagious laughter.

Sabrina loved to live life to the fullest. She was hardworking, incredibly fit and active, adventurous, risk taking, she loved shopping, she was caring and loving, miraculous, one of a kind person. She loved to cruise along the coast with family and friends; hangout and admire the view. Her kids used to get embarrassed when she used the phrase, YOLO! But that is how she lived her life.

Sabrina had been battling challenges with lupus and rheumatoid arthritis for years. You would have never known the obstacle she was facing because she was good at hiding it. She had good days and she had her bad days. She was stubborn though, she would never let anyone know how hard it was for her, but she never lost faith in herself or abilities to get by and continue to live life as if it were her last. She lived a fulfilling life the way she wanted to. On her Instagram main page she wrote; "You only live once, but if you do it right, once is enough"; we believe in our hearts, that she did just that and it was enough to last a lifetime of happiness to her and others she shared her life with.

Sabrina leaves us to treasure every waking moment, in her loving memory to her surviving six children; Jenevie, Gabriel, Desteny, Catrina, Nicolas and Isela; her grandson, Gabriel; fiance, Dimitri; mother, Rosalie; brother, Ernie; sisters, Melissa, Monique and Rene; two grandmothers, Angelita Trejo and Rachel Torres; five grandpups; eight nieces; five nephews; many aunts, uncles, cousins, best friends and several other countless friends and family.

Sabrina will be cherished and will forever live in our hearts. May her spirit live in eternal peace, in Paradise where she will be reunited with with her father Eddie; sister, Jeanette; grandfather, Eving Trejo; best friends Kai and Gil, and many others that she loved and lost throughout her lifetime. She will truly be missed; but her stories will continue to be told so that not only will she remains in our hearts, but in our present, and that will last a lifetime.

"You only live once, but if you do it right, once is enough"

“ I used to just feel your presence while sleeping. But the other night I finally seen you, clear as day. When I went to hug you it felt so real, and then I woke up and you were gone.

I miss you and love you sister.

“ Sabrina loved boxing! At one of my fights the promoter asked Sabrina to be the ring girl. I had no idea she was going to do that. After the first round I looked up and saw Sabrina walking by holding the round 1 sign. I was like, isn't that Sabrina? I was confused for a minute. But then she looked back and winked at me and kept walking. I knew right there that I was going to win that fight. God bless you Sabrina. I miss you so much already. Until we meet again.

“ I met Sabrina over 10 years ago. She was an amazing person. She became a good friend and also my massage therapist. Those visits turned into long talks we would share what was going on in our lives. We shared our struggles and the good and bad. I enjoyed talking to her and venting when I needed to and I loved how she was open with me about her life. She overcame a lot, she was a strong woman. Sabrina you will be missed so much by so many. Thank you for all you did and our long talks. Love you girl. My condolences to the family. Rest Easy Beautiful “ Sabrina; I will never forget the first time I met you! I came to your house for a massage. From that first moment you made me feel so comfortable! I will never forget after the massage you and Primo asked me to go out to dinner with you! I regret not going but you asking meant the world to me! I saw you a number of times after that! Sabrina, you brought so much love, happiness and comfort to numerous people! You will never be forgotten because you gave everyone so much to remember!

Love you Sabrina! Debie

“ Brina, I’m going to miss Our Monday Starbucks and bacon egg bites together. Our morning hour talks that felt like minutes. Our crazy missions and hustles. They way our friendship had no judgment. How we shared on such a deep level that we both knew it would never leave the room. Our ave C and Crenshaw stairs/ramp workouts. How we motivated and pushed each other. I going to miss your beautiful face, contagious laughter and smile . Thank you for all the endless memories and being such a wonderful friend to me. I love you so much my girl! See you in paradise-

“ I was 9 months pregnant with Elizabeth, and I got in the car with you. I don't know if you were apart of Fast and the Furious, but you were driving close to 100 mph on the freeway on our way to Pedro. I'm surprised I didn't go into labor there. Sabrina, you were crazy, wild and beautiful. That was probably one of the last times I got into the car with you as a drive at free will, but one hell of a memory. I love you sister ☐

“ I have so many fun memories with Sabrina as we once lived together when the kids were so young and Nico, Trina and my son Andrew where about 4 to 5 years old . We would pack the kids in the car and take a cruise to the coast . As we would go down a hill she would press on the gas and we would tell the kids “ raise your hands “ as they giggled . We became family after those years . If You needed advice Sabrina would tell you like it is because she cared and being around her made you want to live life to the fullest . Her lip stick was always red and teeth bright White! . I love you so much Sabrina . You will be truly missed but never forgotten . Till we meet again .
