“ I met Susie last year after she had her transplant. I also had a transplant three months before her. It was like an instant friendship because of the connection from our similar journeys. I first heard about her on the news and I felt compelled to reach out to her since we were going through similar health challenges. She was very supportive to me even when going through all her own health challenges. She was a very kind, warm, sincere, caring person.
Sending sincere condolences to Yvette and the rest of the family. I hope all the wonderful memories help comfort you. Love, Deborah

“ We were very touched by the beautiful stories everyone shared about Susie. I went to school with her since Broad Ave. days and shared some classes with her; she was always smiling and so sweet as her family mentioned. I also looked forward to seeing her when I went shopping at Albertsons. We are glad we got to see her at her birthday/be the match fundraiser last year, we got to see her being a mom and still fighting strong. She will definitely be missed by many; it was a pleasure knowing her.

Sending our love and condolences,

“ Yvette & Paul,

For Susie is flying above with her wings of gold, watching over family and friends. Her life here on earth may be over, I'm sure she is doing God's work even in heaven. I'd like to believe she is singing and smiling down on you. She was bigger then life and will never be forgotten. Her footprints forever planted on many hearts. Susie lives through your memories, within her babies, shes everywhere you are. With all the love in our hearts, our deepest condolences,

“ My beautiful cousin Susie. I am in disbelief that you are gone. I was look forward to seeing that big beautiful smile and those big blue eyes. Your makeup was always done beautiful. I remember always wanting to ask you to teach me how to do makeup like you. You had the most radiant spirit. You were not just beautiful on the outside, but the inside as well. I will never forget you, or the impact you have had on me and the world. God has the most beautiful angel in heaven. I love you Susie and I love all the family. I know we don't see each other as much but I love you guys and I keep you in my prayers always. It's true, there is nothing more important than family, and I love all my family. You all are ALWAYS on my mind and I love you all deep in my soul.
